

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County
UNCASVILLE

Officers of Epworth League—Dancing Class Season Ends—Graduating Exercises at Uncasville School.

The Epworth league at its recent business meeting elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Miss Florence Holmes; vice president, Miss Iva Bartlett; Mrs. James B. Aldrich, Mrs. Edith Calvert, Mrs. William Noble, secretary; Miss Winnie Bartlett, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Newton, organist; Miss Iva Bartlett, Mrs. Oliver Conover, child and sister; Miss Marion Manchester of Jersey City, N. J. are spending a few weeks with Mrs. C. Everett Chapman.

Howard Kelsey and Herbert Rogers have obtained employment in Hartford.

First Selectman George H. Bradford had men at work this past week laying out a new road which extends from the Gay Hill road southeast to the Elias Beckwith place. This road when completed will accommodate several families living off the main road.

Arthur L. Botham visited in Hartford this week.

Good Cheer Sunshine society was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of the society's president, Mrs. Albert W. Avery, at Hill Top.

Howard Kelsey and Herbert Rogers have obtained work at Hartford.

Elmer Teft, who is employed in Canterbury, is spending a few days in town.

Miss Daisy Bergman and Miss Ruth Kent of Norwich were in town Friday evening attending the graduation exercises at Palmer Memorial school.

Teachers Leave for Home.

Miss Charlotte Simpson, teacher in grade one in Palmer Memorial school left Saturday for her home in Wallingford.

Miss Helen Kelley, another teacher, left the last of the week for her home in Danbury.

James E. Murphy, principal of Palmer school, will spend his vacation at his home in Dover, N. H.

George Burke and William Edwards of Westerly, R. I. are the week end guests of friends in town.

Miss Josephine Hart, who has been teaching in Salem, returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Hart, Saturday to spend her vacation.

End of Dancing Class.

Wednesday evening closed the term of dancing lessons conducted by John Carlton in Tockley hall.

Mrs. Maurice Brown, who has been attending the commencement exercises at Jefferson college, Philadelphia, has returned home.

Saturday evening a party was given on the lawn in front of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Smith in honor of Miss Sadie Edwards. Outdoor games were played and refreshments served.

Commencement Exercises.

The graduation exercises in the Tenth district (Uncasville) school were held in the chapel of the Methodist church Monday afternoon under the supervision of the principal, Miss Grace I. Hooper.

The following program was rendered: March; Invocation, Rev. J. B. Aldrich; song, The Rally, school chorus; Cottage Gardens in England, May Sullivan; American History as a Basis of Literature, Mildred Goodfellow; songs, A Santa Lucia and Summer Song, girls of the graduating class; reading, Kentucky Bell, Irene Beetham; Rebecca's Composition Writing, Leona Devine; Joann Miller, Margaret McDermott; The Story of the Pilgrims, Labor, Nicholas Doyle; song, The Peasant's Return, school chorus; class paper with valedictory, Ruth Beetham; presentation of diplomas, Frederick A. Johnson; awarding of Comstock prizes; song, Kellar's American Hymn, school chorus; those composing the graduating class were Ruth Beetham, Irene Beetham, Leona Devine, Nicholas Doyle, Mildred Goodfellow, Margaret McDermott, Joann Miller.

Persons.

Mrs. Winthrop M. Daniels and son, Balfour, of Princeton, N. J. are guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Burdick at the Robertson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jeffers are entertaining Mr. Jeffers' mother, Mrs. Sarah Jeffers of Jewett City.

Miss Addie Colville has been spending a few days in Pawtucket, R. I., has returned home.

Mrs. Henry Allen is entertaining Mrs. Reuben Allen and child of Boston.

Mrs. Sarah Spencer's funeral.

The funeral services of Mrs. Sarah Spencer were held on Saturday at her late home, at 12 o'clock. The Rev. P. Luddington officiated and burial was in Comstock cemetery, beside Mr. Spencer, whose death occurred several years ago.

North Stonington

Westerly Grangers Visit Local Grange—Commencement at Wheeler School—Diplomas Presented by Prof. Samuel J. Dutton.

Twenty members of Westerly grange visited the local grange at its last meeting and furnished the literary and musical entertainment for the evening.

Commencement Week.

Commencement exercises of the Wheeler school began Sunday morning in the Congregational church when the baccalaureate sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. F. M. Hollister, from the text found in Psalm LXXII, 18: "The Lord shall be a hand full of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains." Rev. Lucian Drury, pastor emeritus of the Baptist church, assisted in the services. Sunday evening a social song service for the boarding pupils of the school and a few friends was held in the girls' dormitory.

Monday afternoon the graduating exercises were held in Library hall. The exercises were presided over by Rev. F. M. Hollister. Each read a well written essay. Professor Samuel T. Dutton of New York addressed the class and presented the diplomas. There was also an address by Amos A. Brown of Norwich, one of the trustees of the school and by Principal Kendall. Thomas B. Hewitt, president of the board of trustees, presided. Rev. Lucian Drury, pastor of the Baptist church, pronounced the benediction. The exercises were interspersed with songs by the school under the direction of the music master, David E. Carter. In the evening a reception was tendered the graduates.

Fifteen Admitted.

Examinations for admission to the sub-freshman class of the Wheeler school were held last Saturday. Out of 21 applicants 15 were admitted. Another examination will be held in September.

The boarding pupils of the Wheeler school left town Tuesday morning.

Miss Elizabeth W. Whitman was graduated from Brown university Wednesday.

Erastus H. Hewitt of Williamstown, Mass., has been calling on relatives here this week.

Horace M. Hollister has arrived home from Michigan where he is a student in Olivet college.

Miss Elsie L. Hull, a student in the Norwich Free Academy, is at her home in this village for the summer.

Miss Elsie O. Chapman of Worcester has been a visitor in town this week.

Miss Martha H. Rogers of Norwich attended the Wheeler school commencement Monday.

Mrs. C. E. Williams of Northampton, Mass., has been in town this week.

NANTIC

Big Fire Fighting Motor Truck—Boy in Accident—Busy Days in Pine Grove.

A large fire fighting motor truck arrived in the village Saturday evening from Minneapolis. The machine is at Dickinson's garage awaiting parts from the west before proceeding to its destination. The machine is a large one, in fact the largest seen in this part of the country. The car has attracted considerable attention by the villagers.

Charles H. Cone is about the village with a large motor truck.

Leslie Gavitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gavitt of Main street, came near being killed Tuesday afternoon. The boy was playing near some freight cars on the spur track. One of the cars was being moved. He was knocked down and pushed out to one side. He escaped with a few bruises.

Miss India Seaman of Bridgeport is occupying the Brown cottage on Pine street. Her mother, Mrs. Barnard, is expected later.

Harry Glessinger of Bridgeport arrived Tuesday evening. He is a guest of S. O. Harrington.

G. W. Pierce is entertaining his niece, Mrs. T. E. Ober from Hartford.

Janitor Smith is installing the street lamps about the Grove. Probably the last of the month the lights will be in operation.

Byron Clark with a force of men is cutting the grass on the farm and about the Grove.

Mrs. J. M. Sweet is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. H. R. Farmer, and children, from Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. George Tabbs and daughter, Miss Katherine of Norwich are at the Washburn cottage. They have as their guest, Miss Florence Washburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Waterman and children of Hartford are occupying the Goss cottage on Main street for the summer.

Mrs. W. H. Dorman has returned from a week's visit to her father in Willimantic.

Mrs. E. J. Dorman has gone to her home in Beverly, Mass., after a lengthy visit to her mother, Mrs. Jane Dorman.

F. B. Tice of Natick is assisting Harry Lee in making repairs to the motor of Mr. Lee's racing boat.

Mrs. Agnes Lloyd was in New London Wednesday afternoon to attend the wedding of Miss Agnes L. Douglas and Archie Wheeler at St. James Episcopal church. Miss Douglas is daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Warren Douglas now residing in Waterford.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Ekeland of New York arrived in the Grove Sunday for the summer. They are occupying the Colville cottage.

Miss Lizzie Colville left Saturday for Townsend, Vt., to spend the summer with friends.

Miss Bertha Keiss of Stamford is visiting Mrs. C. Von Felitz at the New London home.

Frank Aston returned to his home in Middletown Tuesday evening.

Mrs. W. B. Griswold and children, of Hartford are at their cottage for the summer.

George Bell has returned to his home in Philadelphia.

Mrs. H. C. Boden closed her cottage a few days ago and left for her home at Willimantic.

Leonard Mallory, Quaker Hill, is the guest of his uncle, Walter Barker.

Vacation House.

The summer vacation school at Breezy Point known as the Brattleboro house will open for the season June 20. Caretaker R. L. Manwaring is putting the grounds in order. It is reported that Mrs. E. C. Perkins, who was in charge of the school last season, will not be here the coming season.

Mrs. Martha Williams left Wednesday for New London after spending a month in the Grove at the Monroe cottage.

The store opened Monday for the summer.

Elmas Manwaring will leave soon for New Haven. He has been visiting his brother, Robert L. Manwaring, for about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noble of Hartford are taking the North street car on South street for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Shankowitz of New York spent Sunday at their cottage on Orchard street.

LEBANON

Interest in W. H. S. Graduation—Miss Vera Hoxie Perfect in Attendance for Four Years.

Miss Mary Randall was the guest Friday of Mrs. E. F. Gadboys of Norwich.

Mrs. C. A. Perkins has returned after visiting friends in Mystic and Waterford.

Mrs. Harold Maine of Windham has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James Pendleton.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Danielson have been in Danielson this week attending the graduation of their daughter, Sarah C. Danielson, from Killingly High school.

Clifton Sweet of New Britain was a week end guest of his mother, Mrs. Mary Sweet.

Local Graduates.

Those from here who were graduated from the Windham High school were Vera H. Hoxie, Helen E. Blakelock, Ruby Williams and Edward Lamb.

Mrs. E. A. Hoxie and Miss Vera Hoxie took the train Saturday morning for New York City. Mrs. Hoxie, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geer and Mrs. Hilda Peck attended Pomona grange in Bozrah Tuesday.

Miss Vera Hoxie, who was graduated from Windham High school Thursday, did not miss a day in the four years.

Ralph Royall of New York spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Royall.

Miss W. H. Robinson spent Thursday with Mrs. C. L. Preston.

Miss Doris Troland is spending several weeks in London.

The Ladies Aid society met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. N. B. Royall.

LAUREL GLEN

J. P. Von Carlsberg visited Providence Saturday. The trip was made by auto.

Stella Martin and children visited over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Main.

The entertainment and supper held in the chapel Saturday evening was a success. A large sum was added to the treasury.

Mrs. Lydia Holdredge has returned home.

Mrs. Smith of Westerly has been the guest of Mrs. Eugene Congdon.

Dwight Main and family were in Putnam Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Attaway Main were appointed delegates to attend the Stonington Union association at Grotton Heights Wednesday and Thursday.

George Hill and daughter were in Norwich Tuesday.

Mrs. Simeon White attended the school picnic in district No. 6 Saturday.

Features of Graduating Exercises at Local School.

Graduating exercises were held at Wylie school Wednesday. The school room was decorated with laurel. The children of the lower grades gave recitations and the eighth grade read the following essays: The World Peace

Foundation, Elsie Brown; The Flag, Alfred Pratt; Camp Life in America, Alfred Pratt; The Panama Canal, Floyd Barber. A special musical feature was a Japanese song drill. Following the programme, refreshments were served to about 30 guests. Diplomas were presented by Supervisor Young to Elsie Brown and Marion Gardner. Then followed Good Bye by Ethel Congdon and the Happy School Days Now Are Ended.

GALES FERRY

Pleasing Exercises on Children's Day—Business Meeting of Ladies Aid Society.

Children's day exercises held at the M. E. church Sunday morning in place of the morning service and Sunday school was largely attended by parents and friends of the children. A musical programme entitled Children's Day was rendered by the choir and school and was interspersed with recitations by the children. The programme as given follows: Song, by His Grace, triumphant, choir and school; responsive scripture reading; invocation, Rev. C. Wilson Harrison; hymn and service, songs, Let the Waking World Adore Him; Welcome, Miss Madeleine Birch; hymn, Send Out Thy Light; song, Sweet and Low, quartette; recitation, Master Alton Chapman, Miss Mary Birch; song, Awake O Earth; recitation, Miss Ernestine Talbot, Miss Edna Chapman; selection, Thou Art Near, choir; exercise, nine girls' songs, morning With the Birds and Flowers and Songs of the Summer; offering, taken by Misses Mary and Madeleine Birch; recitation, Miss Gertrude Allen; recitation, The Shepherd, by the Misses Grace Chapman and Florence Hurlbutt; address, Rev. C. Wilson Harrison; song, Eventide.

Cottage Notes.

Mrs. Joan Rogers, with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Rogers and children of New London, were week end visitors at their summer home in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Derrington of Norwich opened their cottage for the season. She is entertaining her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Tolhurst, of Hartford.

Mrs. F. V. Meyers of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Jerome of New York, Mrs. Derrington, Mr. and Mrs. Boston have been spending some time recently with Mr. and Mrs. George F. Dean.

Mrs. Franklin H. Brown was the guest of Mrs. Mary Taylor in New London Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Pitcher of Norwich have opened their cottage for the season.

Bathing Season Opened.

The bathing season at the Perry opened Saturday, several of the village people going about ten p.m. to the Perkins wharf.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey P. Aldrich and granddaughter, Miss Edna Aldrich, of Norwich, were visitors over Sunday at Twin Oaks cottage.

Mrs. E. W. Jones of Mount Vernon, N. Y., arrived last week for a visit over the races with Mr. and Mrs. James Freeman.

William Taylor from Canada was a guest the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan A. Gibbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson P. Leavenworth from Jewett City, with their son, William, a student at Bellevue hospital, New York, were guests of Mrs. Leavenworth's brother, J. P. Satterlee, at Ichabod cottage on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wolf and family from Norwich arrived at their summer cottage Wednesday.

Miss Dallas of New York returned here Wednesday from a week's visit with friends at Chickopee Falls, Mass.

Mrs. W. E. Gilroy of Mount Vernon, N. Y., arrived here last week for a visit with Mrs. E. A. Alpin, remaining over the races with Mr. and Mrs. Alpin, who accompanied her as Mrs. Alpin's guest, returned to Mount Vernon on Friday.

Aid Society's Officers.

The annual election of the officers of the Ladies Aid society was held at the church last night. Rev. C. Wilson Harrison was appointed as chairman.

Mrs. Kate E. Colver, president; Mrs. Henry W. Hurlbutt, vice president; and Mrs. C. E. Perkins, secretary and treasurer, were re-elected for the ensuing year. The four directresses chosen were Mrs. Sarah P. Hurlbutt, Mrs. C. E. Perkins, Mrs. L. Perkins and Miss Alice Satterlee.

Mrs. Colver, Miss Satterlee and Mrs. C. Wilson Harrison were appointed as the soliciting committee.

Mrs. George Arnold and Miss Nellie Arnold of Worcester were guests for a day last week of Mrs. Franklin H. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac S. Jones and family of Norwich arrived at their cottage on Monday.

Lieut. Charles Satterlee of Boston and Elmer Satterlee of North Haven were guests of Mrs. C. E. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Satterlee.

Miss Mildred Scranton of Durham is visiting her aunts, the Misses Mathewson.

Misses Marion and Mildred Rogers, accompanied by their cousin, Mrs. Wilbur of Hartford, arrived at their home in the village for the summer vacation Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wheeler and family of Norwich arrived at their cottage on Monday.

Mrs. James Brooks of Jewett City is spending this week with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson.

The Palmer woodlot has been sold to Richard B. Wheeler.

Chas. F. Palmer closed her school in district No. 6 Saturday with a picnic.

Mrs. Mrs. Irving Butten were in Norwich Tuesday.

Mrs. Irvin Mills and Miss Mary J. Chapman attended the graduating exercises at the Wheeler school Monday.

E. C. Maine, who was seriously cut on his foot, is improving.

Miss Gertha Lewis of Voluntown spent Sunday at Mrs. Mary P. Palmer's.

Miss Sarah T. Palmer was a guest at J. N. Lewis' home in New Britain.

Morton and Susan Cooke were in Westerly Monday.

Misses Winifred and Cecil Palmer were guests of the mother, Mrs. Mary P. Palmer, over the week.

Mrs. Jennie Thompson, Mrs. Irvin Mills, Clark Cook and Miss Mary Chapman were in Grotton Wednesday to attend the Baptist Union association.

Fractured Wrist.

Mrs. Paley and daughter, Miss Mollie Paley, have returned from spending a few days in New York. Mrs. Paley was attending the wedding of her nephew, who was injured and slipped and fell, breaking her wrist. The fracture was reduced, but she will be disabled for some time.

One hardy cluster of old-fashioned roses that have been growing in one corner of a garden yard for nearly a hundred years, are just bursting into bloom once more.

Quail Numerous.

Quail were never so numerous, and they will many times answer the farmer's whistle and vigorously proclaim more wet.

FRANKLIN

Robinson Family Reunion to Be Held Next Week—Closing Exercises of Sixth District School.

Mrs. Eliza Preston of Denver, Colo. has been spending a few days with Mrs. Lavinia A. Robinson.

Mrs. J. D. Simpson has returned from a lengthy stay in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Ladd entertained on Sunday at dinner Mrs. Eliza Preston of Denver and Mrs. Benjamin Burdick of Balto.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Simpson and son, Robert Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown of Norwich and Clarence Simpson of Hartford were visitors at J. D. Simpson's over Sunday.

Mrs. Harmon A. Gager spent Sunday in New London.

Augustus Linblum of New York is spending a few days at The Bitches.

Mrs. Katherine Spalding of St. Catharines, Ontario, is visiting Mrs. J. D. Simpson.

Robinson Family Reunion.

The annual reunion of the Robinson family will be held Thursday of next week.

Mrs. Horace Smith of Lyme was a week end guest of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Greenall.

Closing Exercises.

The Sixth district school closed Friday of last week for the summer. The school room was prettily decorated with laurel, daisies and ferns. The exercises showed careful training on the part of the teacher. Following was the program: Song, school; dialogue, How We Got Our Seasons—King, Frank Rockwood; Maroon, his cousin, Celia White; Spring, Dorothy Cox; Summer, Jennie Scinto; Autumn, Mary Chappell; Winter, Nellie Taylor; a quartette in verse, Isham Date, Edith Date, Myrtle Browning, Ella Rockwood; humorous recitation, Nellie Taylor, Harold Armstrong; months of the year, Ella Rockwood, Arad Robinson, Edith Date, Myrtle Browning, Edith Date, Isham Date; recitation, boys of school; song, school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith, Arthur Smith, Mrs. George Avery and Milton Beck with attended the graduating exercises at the Academy Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith attended the grange meeting in Bozrah.

Heard Letter from Rev. E. H. Smith.

The Home Missionary society met with Mrs. Louis Smith, Thursday of last week. Mrs. Parsons of Ottawa, Canada, gave a talk on Missions.

Several solos by Mrs. Parsons were much enjoyed. Mrs. Owen S. Smith of Norwich read a letter from her son, Rev. Edward H. Smith, a missionary in Ing Hok, China. Following are the names of those present: Mrs. George Avery; vice president, Mrs. Fred Race; secretary and treasurer, Eliza Smith; chairman of the work committee, Mrs. Kate Johnson; quilt committee, Mrs. Jeannette Hoffman, Miss Ella Hoffman, Mrs. Frank Rockwood; executive committee, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Lavinia A. Robinson.

Road Society (Stonington)

End of School Year—Personal Notes and Comment.

Miss Abby Williams has been the guest of her niece, Mrs. Fernando Wheeler.

Prof. James Hazard of New Jersey was in town last week. Prof. Hazard spoke at the Grange meeting here last August, upon the chestnut tree blight.

Miss Lucy Billings has returned from her school duties at Chester, for the summer vacation.

Schools closed Thursday for the summer.

Rev. Dr. Bates of the Mystic Baptist church preached a forcible sermon last Sunday morning.

At Wheeler School Events.

Mrs. Stephen Palmer has with her for several weeks, her niece from Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Grace D. Wheeler and Miss Mary Sara Wheeler who is at home from Wellesley, attended the Wheeler school graduation at North Stonington Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth N. Williams attended the Wheeler family, Thursday evening at North Stonington.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Palmer were at the Wheeler school graduation at North Stonington Monday evening.

Miss Martha G. Williams was graduated from Williams Memorial, at New London, Thursday evening, the friends from here who attended were Deacon B. F. Williams, A. G. Hewitt, Mrs. Fanny Williams and Mrs. Emma Williams.

David L. Gallup and John S. Palmer of New York were at church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Avery of Bozrah and Mrs. Charles Johnson of Norwich made an auto trip to Lord's Point this week.

Little Linda Wheeler is recovering from illness.

Windham County

South Woodstock

Rev. H. Douglass Pierce Ordained Pastor of the Second Baptist Church.

A council was called to convene at the Second Baptist church at 3 p. m. Wednesday for the ordination of H. Douglass Pierce, acting pastor of the church. The council consisted of the following: Rev. H. Douglass Pierce, pastor of the church; Rev. A. B. Coats of Hartford, Rev. A. B. Coats of Malden, Mass., as visiting brethren. The afternoon session consisted of the hearing of the Christian experience, call to the gospel ministry and the candidates of the Christian doctrine of the view, which were given in clear and full terms and were unanimously voted by the council to be satisfactory. The council voted to recommend the church to proceed with the ordination, which took place after a repeat prepared by the ladies of the church at 7 p. m. The evening service opened with a praise service led by the pastor, with Randolph Tetterford of Boston, organist. Prayer was offered by Rev. A. B. Coats of Malden, the scripture was read by Rev. G. H. Boardman of Thompson, the sermon was delivered by Dean Anthony B. Wood, D. D., of Hartford, and the right hand of fellowship was given by Rev. L. B. Curtis of Stafford. After singing, Bless Be the Tie That Binds, the benediction was pronounced by the pastor, Rev. H. Douglass Pierce.

Masons to Attend Church.

Rev. Mr. Pierce will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning, June 22nd, before the Masonic fraternity as guests in observance of St. John's day. The Masons are to meet at the lodge room at 10 o'clock, going from there to the church.

Grange Memorial Sunday Observance—Children's Night with Pleasant Features.

Rev. Mr. Reynolds is spending the week in Boston with his son. There

Miracle Workers in 500,000 Homes

35 FAMOUS HOOSIERS $1.00

Club Opens Monday Morning, June 23rd

At last the Hoosiers are here! For months we've been trying to get permission to organize this Hoosier Club. Women all over town have been waiting patiently.

Our opportunity has arrived. Next week you and a few other women who come early can own a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet on payment of $1.00. You can have it delivered at once to use and enjoy, just by joining our Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet Club.

Only $1.00 is the membership fee—weekly dues are $1.00. Membership fee and weekly dues both apply to the price of your cabinet—there are no other payments—you pay not a penny extra by joining.

Furthermore, this club is under the direct supervision of The Hoosier Manufacturing Company, which fixes the standard low price of Hoosier Cabinets the world over—a low price made possible by low cost of manufacture from enormous sales.